Monday 11th May

English

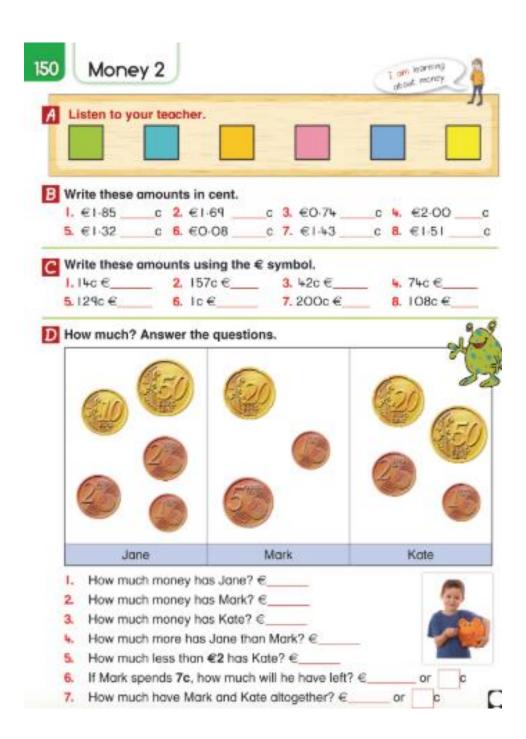

- 1. Spelling Workbook Unit 14 (Contractions) Learn the last 5 words (Look, Say, Cover, Write, Check) and write them into your homework copy (3 times each). Write a sentence for one of the words. Complete Ex. 7 & 8 in your book.
- 2. Oral Language pick 5 words from the wordlist for 'What can fossils tell us?' on p. 85 of your book and put them into a sentence orally.
- 3. Clickety-Click Read the story 'What can fossils tell us?' p. 64 and 65. Write the following passage into your copy, filling in the blanks.

- 1. Mental Maths Monday p. 62
- 2. Practise your counting in 2s, 5s and 10s
- 3. Planet Maths Money P. 150. Remember...there is 100c in €1. When we write the amount of money, we don't include the € AND the c...we choose one or the other.

€1.49 = 149c; €1.23 = 123c

14c = €0.14 ; 65c = €0.65

- 2. Fill in the blanks for the Prayer after Communion.

SPHE

We looked at 'Personal Safety' in our last lesson. Can you remember the strategies you decided on to keep yourself safe in tricky situations? I have included 12 questions below to help you further explore how you can keep yourselves safe. You can answer them orally or write the answers...whichever you prefer.

What do you call someone who pulls your hair every day in the playground?
Doing something even though you know it is dangerous is called taking a ...?
Doing something because someone bets that you cannot is called 'doing a ...'?
What should always be put in front of an open fire?
Where should the flex of the kettle be put?
What should always be worn when travelling in a rowing boat?
What safety equipment should be worn when travelling in a car?
Name a sharp object used to cut paper.
What should you always do if someone bullies you?
What should you always do if someone dares you to do something dangerous?
What is a pedestrian crossing?
What colour traffic lights mean 'stop'?

Well done – you are half way through the week already!!
