The Wonder of New Life – When I was a baby

1. Have a look at the questions below and ask your mam/dad to help you answer them.

- What day of the week were you born? Do you know what date it was? What do you call that date now when it comes around once a year - a very special day for you every year?
- Do you know you were weighed when you were born? Could you find out your birth weight? Who could you ask?
- What do you think the doctor/nurse said to Mammy when you were born? How did s/he know you were a boy/girl?
- Do you know where you were born? Was it in hospital or at home? Who was there? How did they feel when they saw you being born? Did anybody talk to you or give you a hug?
- How do you think Mammy felt when she held you for the first time? What do you think she said to you? If you could have talked what might you have said to Mammy?
- Have any of you seen the cards that were sent to your Mammy and Daddy to congratulate them when you were born? Some parents keep these and maybe you could ask at home about them.
- ▲ Do you know when you said your first word? What word was it?

 What age were you when you took your first steps on your own? Where were you when it happened? Were you wearing shoes? Have any of you still got your first pair of shoes?

 What are they like?
- ▲ Do you remember anything about being a baby being in the pram/buggy/playpen?

 Did you like people looking at you, admiring you, saying who you looked like? Do you think babies hear and understand these things?
- ▲ What did you eat and drink when you were a baby? What was your favourite food then? What is your favourite food now? Did you develop a "sweet tooth"? Do you know what that means?
- ▲ What was your favourite toy? Have you still got any/some of your baby toys?

 Where are they? What could you do with toys when you get too old for playing with them?
- Would you like to be a baby forever? Why?/Why not? What's good about growing up?

Wellbeing

If you have space in your Happy Thoughts journal you can use that, if not just use your copy. I would like you to have a think and write 5 things you are grateful for. I have included some of mine below.

I am grateful for my family and friends.

I am grateful that everyone I know is well.

I am grateful for the lovely weather we have been having.

I am grateful for my warm house.

I am grateful for the food I can eat everyday.

Can you think of some more things to be grateful for?

SESE

If you haven't already finished your project, today is the day! Send me your pictures and videos and I will upload them to our webpage.

Well done for all your hard work again this week – you are super! I really miss seeing you all everyday but we are almost at the summer holidays – only a couple more weeks left so keep it up!
